

Donny Roth

NSCA Level III Instructor
CSM Certified Instructor

Donny lives in Greenville, South Carolina where he was born and raised. Growing up as an avid outdoorsman, hunting and fishing was a big part of his recreational life. After a 20 year career in corporate America, he found a way to incorporate his love for the outdoors into his work life when he became involved in the Gun Club and Shooting Preserve business in 1990 as an owner of an upstate club.

From this point, he never looked back, and began his next 28 years in all aspects of shooting, instructing, building and designing gun clubs. Donny developed and owns Shotgun Sports Plus, a business that serves shooters, gun clubs and shooting preserve businesses across the southeast.

A highly trained shooting instructor with 20,000+ hours of teaching over the last 28 years, Donny completed all 3 levels (Level I, II and III) of the NSCA Instructor Certification Program by 2009 and the CSM (Coordinated Shooting Method) Instructor Certification in 2014. His passion is to teach shooters how to shoot better - specifically youth shooters from 10 to 25 years of age and women shooters with all levels of abilities. However, instruction is tailored to all shooters from novice to masterclass.

His methods are simple. Seeing the target is critical - learning and understanding the fundamentals is necessary - developing the skills to execute the fundamentals is so important. If you choose to book a lesson with Donny please come with an open mind, and a desire to have fun!
